ITALIAN STYLE PAPPARDELLE RAGU

- Olive oil
- Ragù mince
- il soffritto (onions, carrots, celery)
- Meat seasoning
- Oregano
- Crushed garlic
- Red wine
- Beef stock
- Tinned tomatoes
- Passata (tomato purée)
- Grated Parmesan
- Pappardelle pasta

Instructions:

1. Heat the oil gently in a large pot.
2. Add the soffritto and blend it into the oil.
3. Gently cook the mixture until it softens and releases its aroma.
4. Add the garlic and stir it in carefully.
5. Add the ragù mince to the pot and stir it through.
6. Stir well until the meat turns evenly brown and fragrant.
7. Add your seasoning and mix it thoroughly into the meat.
8. Add the oregano and stir it in evenly.
9. Deglaze the pot with red wine and let it simmer.
10. Cook the mixture until the wine reduces by half and thickens.
11. Add the tinned tomatoes and tomato purée to the pot.
12. Pour in the beef stock to cover the mixture nicely.
13. Stir well and bring the sauce to a strong, rolling simmer.
14. Reduce the heat to a slow, gentle simmer.
15. Stir occasionally until the sauce has reduced, taking about one hour.
16. Serve the dish on a bed of hot, perfectly cooked pappardelle pasta.
17. Generously top the ragù with a layer of grated Parmesan.
